Michael Koenig joined Prairie Capital in March of 2017 and currently serves as an Associate. He is responsible for assisting with the evaluation, due diligence and financial modeling of potential investment opportunities, in addition to performing industry research and financial analysis in support of the firm's current portfolio investments.

Prior to joining Prairie Capital, Michael worked as an Analyst in the Healthcare Investment Banking Practice at William Blair in their Chicago office. At William Blair, Michael worked on a variety of sell-side and buy-side mergers and acquisitions, debt and equity financings, and other strategic advisory initiatives.

Michael graduated with honors from Indiana University where he received his B.S. in Finance and International Business. Michael lives in the Streeterville neighborhood of Chicago.

In addition to his responsibilities at Prairie, Michael is a member of the A Better Chicago Impact Council. For additional information about this organization, please see the Civic Engagement section of this website.
